All SLIS students who receive SLIS departmental travel funding must document their professional activities:

- Pictures taken during presentations;
- Pictures with presentation materials;
- A brief write-up describing the event attended, the student's responsibilities and activities, titles of any works/presentations shared (can be submitted as an email to Dr. Green).

Travel funding will be distributed once these items are submitted to SLIS. Students will also be expected to share their experiences for distribution in the SLIS newsletter and on SLIS social media and will be contacted throughout the semester for this information.
